Recruitment Day Lunch On Your Own (Starting from 11:00am - Until)

As candidates, you will have unique schedules. Lunch is "On Your Own" and you should make plans to eat during a time when you have a scheduled break. The Ferguson Center Food Court will be available, as well as details about other local spots on "The Strip" and on campus. There will be some organically organized groups on the day of interviews that you can eat with, or you may choose to take care of other UA business, or eat on your own.

GA & EXTERNSHIP INTERVIEWS

Each candidate schedule will be unique. Your individual schedule will be based on number of interviews and availability of hiring departments.

NOTE: Each candidate schedule will be unique. Slots are allotted in 30-minute increments with breaks in-between. Individual Schedules will be based on interest from the hiring department and scheduling needs of the candidate, as well as the hiring department. If you have a break in your schedule, you can make this a time to schedule meetings with your academic department chair, other campus resources (financial aid, Support Services, etc) or explore Tuscaloosa. We do not have any specific programming going on at this time, but it is a great time to explore all that UA has to offer. We encourage you to seek out meetings with departmental reps or schedule visit with other campus resources prior to attending Recruitment Day.
